

Grammar & Punctuation

Gold

These Gold questions require applying conjunctions and punctuation rules with genuine reasoning.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Section A: Conjunctions in Context

1. Write one sentence using two different conjunctions correctly.

2. Explain the difference in meaning between "and" and "but" when joining two sentences.

3. Join these three short sentences into one, using conjunctions: The dog barked. The cat ran away. It was funny.

4. Which conjunction shows a reason: "and", "because", or "then"?

5. Write a sentence that would only make sense with "although" and not "and".

Section B: Punctuation Reasoning

1. Explain why "Its" and "It's" mean different things.

2. Punctuate this correctly, adding capital letters and full stops: sarah asked can we go to the park

3. Why does an apostrophe show something belongs to someone? Give an example.

4. Explain when you would use "a" instead of "an".

5. Write a question, an exclamation, and a statement, each about the same topic.
