The Passage

Tom loved Saturdays. Every Saturday morning, he and his grandad walked to the market together. They bought fresh bread, sweet strawberries, and sometimes a small treat for Tom. Today, the market was busier than usual, with a band playing music near the flower stall. Tom held his grandad's hand tightly as they weaved through the crowd, following the smell of fresh bread.

Questions

1. What day does Tom go to the market?

2. Who does Tom go to the market with?

3. Name two things they usually buy.

4. What was different about the market today?
