

Section A: Rocks

1. e.g. granite
2. Granite is harder
3. A fossil is the preserved remains or imprint of a plant or animal from long ago
4. e.g. in rock, cliffs, or the ground
5. False

Section B: Soils

1. Broken-down rock, mixed with decayed plants and animals
2. e.g. worms, insects
3. It gives plants nutrients and something to root into
4. A mixture with properties between the two, e.g. it drains better than pure clay but holds more water than pure sand
5. They are broken down slowly by weather, water, and time