Cohesion

These questions practise cohesion - using pronouns, linking adverbials and conjunctions so writing flows. New in Year 5.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Section A: Pronouns and Links

1. Replace the repeated noun with a pronoun: Lily loves dogs. Lily has two dogs.

2. Circle the two linking words: First, mix the flour. Next, add the eggs.

3. Which word links stages in time: Then or Because?

4. Choose: It was raining. ___, we stayed inside. (As a result, Firstly)

5. Circle the two pronouns that mean "the dragon": The dragon spread its wings and it flew away.

Section B: Linking Ideas

1. Put in order: Finally, First, Next

2. Add a linking adverbial: I wanted to play out. ___, it was raining.

3. Rewrite to avoid repeating "the cat": The cat ate. The cat slept.

4. Which means "at the same time": Meanwhile or Finally?

5. Use a synonym instead of repeating "dog": The dog barked. The dog ran off.
