Cohesion

These questions practise cohesion - using pronouns, linking adverbials and conjunctions so writing flows. New in Year 5.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Section A: Explain and Improve

1. Explain what cohesion means.

2. How does "However" help a reader?

3. Fix the ambiguity: Mum told Gran that she had won a prize.

4. Improve using pronouns and a synonym: The volcano erupted. The volcano sent ash into the sky. The volcano destroyed the village.

5. Which linking adverbial shows a result: Nevertheless, Consequently or Meanwhile?

Section B: Write Your Own

1. Write three sentences about a character, using a name once and then pronouns.

2. Write the first sentence of a new paragraph that links back to the last one.

3. Write a persuasive point that starts with "Furthermore,".

4. Compare two things using "On the other hand,".

5. Rewrite to make it flow: It was dark. We were lost. We saw a light. We walked to it.
