Determiners - Answers

Answer Key

Section A: Kinds of Determiner

1. the = article; those = demonstrative; our = possessive; several = quantifier
2. "Some", "their", "the"
3. Pronoun - it stands on its own (no noun straight after it). ("my" is the determiner.)
4. Determiner - it comes before the noun "film".
5. an honest answer (silent h), a useful tip ("you" sound), an unusual hat

Section B: Changing the Meaning

1. "These apples are sour."
2. e.g. "I saw four ducks at the pond."
3. "No"
4. e.g. "Our dog chased its ball." / "My dog chased his ball."
5. (a). "Much" is for things you can't count; biscuits need "many".