

Grammar & Punctuation

Bronze

These questions cover relative clauses, modal verbs, and using commas to avoid ambiguity - part of the Year 5 grammar curriculum.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Section A: Relative Clauses

1. Add a relative clause to this sentence: The house, ____, was for sale.

2. Circle the relative pronoun in this sentence: The boy who scored the goal was delighted.

3. Rewrite using a relative clause: The dog was barking. It belonged to my neighbour.

4. Which word could start a relative clause: who, and, but?

5. Add "which" to join these sentences: The book was excellent. I borrowed it from the library.

Section B: Modal Verbs & Commas

1. Circle the modal verb: She might come to the party.

2. Which modal verb shows something is certain: could, must, or might?

3. Add a comma to avoid ambiguity: Let's eat Grandma.

4. Rewrite this sentence using "should": It is a good idea to revise.

5. Choose the best modal verb: You ____ wear a helmet when cycling. (can, must, might)
