

Grammar & Punctuation

Silver

These Silver questions extend relative clauses and modal verbs to slightly trickier examples.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Section A: Relative Clauses

1. Add a relative clause: The teacher, ____, praised the class.

2. Join using "who": The man was smiling. He won the race.

3. Join using "which": The car was red. It was parked outside.

4. Circle the relative clause: My friend, who lives next door, is coming over.

5. Write your own sentence with a relative clause starting with "that".

Section B: Modal Verbs & Commas

1. Choose the modal verb showing most certainty: might, could, must

2. Rewrite using "should": It would be wise to check your work.

3. Add a comma to avoid ambiguity: After eating the dog went for a walk.

4. Write a sentence using "may" to show something is possible.

5. Explain the difference in meaning between "can" and "must".
