Relative Clauses

These questions practise relative clauses - extra information about a noun that starts with who, which, that, whose, where or when. New in Year 5.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Section A: Explain and Correct

1. Explain the difference: "My brother who lives in London is a chef." and "My brother, who lives in London, is a chef."

2. Explain why there are no commas: The children who finished early could go out.

3. Correct the two mistakes: The girl which lives next door who's cat is called Pip waved.

4. Join into one sentence with two relative clauses: Mrs Khan teaches us. She has a dog. The dog is called Biscuit.

5. Underline the relative clause and circle the noun it describes: The cake that Gran baked won first prize.

Section B: Write Your Own

1. Write a sentence about a place with a relative clause as extra information (use commas).

2. Write a sentence where the relative clause tells us which one (no commas).

3. Write a sentence using "whose".

4. Improve with a relative clause: The tiger crept through the jungle.

5. Write a sentence with a relative clause that starts with "where".
